THE CHINA MAIL.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, 3RD MAY, 1866.

DEATHS.

At Canton, Wednesday May 1, 1866, of Meningitis, Group Austris Eulis, Infant son of Rev Arthur and Mary Thomas Folson, aged 11 months and 4 days.

At Hongkong, Monday May 1, 1866, of Bright's Disease, Robert H. M. S. Princess Royal, aged 26 years.

EUROPS OF THE WEEK.

Shanghai Races—Grant's telegraphic line—Value of property at Shanghai—The tea season at Fuhchau—Naval boat race—Departure of H. M. S. "Princess Royal"—Our Hongkong ships and Markets—Employment of Convicts—Small pox in the Garrison—The weather.

The Saconada which arrived on Monday last, we have dates from Shanghai for the 26th instant. The northern papers are of course filled with racing matters, to the exclusion of any less exciting news. The weather during the first day of the races was unfortunately very unfavourable; the rain making the course very heavy and muddy, and diminishing the usual attendance of the fair sex, causing the Grand Stand to have a very sombre appearance. The running appears to have principally made by the strongest horses to the exclusion of those who were only goers. Sir William did not answer the expectations of his backers; Exeter's superior bottom taking him through the mud with flying colors. The race for the "Ladies Purse" was made a perfect farce, Busy Bee, who is in reality a small Arab horse, being entered as a pony, and his rider rather greenly allowing him to win by too long a distance.

The race for the Tsatlee cup, for China ponies, seems to have been the most closely contested; Birdlime winning by only half a length, the third and fourth ponies being separated by little more. The Shanghai papers are so busy with race news that they insert a most important piece of news
